Overview

the green o, an adults-only, sophisticated Montana woodland hideaway, is comprised of 12 design-forward accommodations located in the remote township of Greenough, Montana—35 miles northeast of Missoula, Montana. The retreat lies at the southern edge of the expansive 37,000-acre Paws Up Ranch, which is also home to The Resort at Paws Up—an adventure destination well known for its luxury homes and for pioneering glamping in North America.

Location

the green o, may feel like it's a million miles away from the everyday, but it's easier to get to than travelers might think. The property is located just a 35-minute drive from the Missoula International Airport (MSO), which features major airlines and direct, daily flights. There are also one-stop flights from most major cities, including Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Denver, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Oakland, Phoenix, Portland, Salt Lake City, San Francisco and Seattle. Many guests take private flights into MSO. Round-trip transportation between the airport and the green o is included in all room rates, as well as all on-property transportation. Check out the direct flights here.

Accommodations

the green o guests can choose from 12 design-forward luxury “haus” accommodations in four exquisite designs:

Tree Haus

Elevated 15 feet in the air, the four (4) Tree Haus accommodations feature two stories of living space. Ascend a glass-encased spiral staircase to a living room and then on to a master bedroom suite. Floor-to-ceiling windows give guests the perfect vantage for admiring the forest. Two separate terraces provide foliage-level views of the surrounding wilderness, and guests can enjoy a ground-level hot tub.

Haus stats:

1,030 sq. ft. interior space
410 sq. ft. exterior space
1,440 sq. ft. total

Green Haus

Part woodland bunker and part modern museum, the four (4) Green Haus accommodations feature a living roof—a garden exploding with native grasses—turning its rooftop terrace into a meadow-like perch. A skylight above the bed will have guests gazing at constellations all through the night. A pitched ceiling creates a large atrium over the glass-encased living room.

Haus stats:

880 sq. ft. interior space
1,035 sq. ft. exterior space
1,915 sq. ft. total

Round Haus

The three (3) stylish Round Haus accommodations give guests license to wander. Its edgy design is a result of its curves. Both its living room and bedroom offer 180-degree window views, situating couples right in the center of the forest. Guests can relax in a sunken seating area with a two-sided fireplace or head to a rooftop terrace with panoramic views.

Haus stats:

918 sq. ft. interior space
767 sq. ft. exterior space
1,685 sq. ft. total

Light Haus

The one (1) single Light Haus accommodation features a glass bump-out design with an oversized skylight brings the stars right inside the guests' bedroom. Pine foliage provides privacy while guests soak in their own hot tub on the inviting outdoor deck. With two glowing fireplaces, the Light Haus will warm the heart.

Transportation

Most guests at the green o do not find it necessary to rent a car. Airport transfers from Missoula are complimentary for guests, and all Hauses come with a Lexus luxury SUV for transportation around the property.

Greenough History

On land that was a patchwork of homesteads, fields and woods, a scion by the name of Paul Greenough established a ranch here in about 1915. His father was a wealthy businessman in the mining and timber industries, but Greenough wanted to be a rancher. After acquiring the original 3,800 acres, he stocked herds of sheep, cattle and horses. A man with a well-known sense of humor, Greenough decided to brand his sheep by painting them with a big green "O." Years later, the town of Greenough was named in his honor.
